

Incident Management

Platform rule for Non-delivery of the product/services after placement of contract for DP/L1/Bid/RA

Delivered Orders Vs Non Delivered Orders:

- Delivered Orders are those where at least one delivery date is updated against the contract or if PRC/CRAC is generated for the order.
- Non-Delivered orders are those where no delivery date is updated against the order, not even for a single consignment

▪ Incident Reason:

- Non delivery of Products/services after placement of the contract, for Direct Purchase / L1 Purchase
- Non delivery of Products/services after placement of the contract, for Bid/RA

Incident Management

- Raise of Incident by GeM:
 - System will raise incidents against the seller for the non-delivery where no delivery date is updated against the order after 15 days of expiry of the max of the expected date of delivery.
- Incident Severity:
 - Serious in case of DP/L1
 - Severe in case of Bid/RA
- Only applicable for "goods" order
- System will exclude all such orders where any incident is already raised against the seller for the order
- Auto SCN at the Incident escalation to GeM (No Impact of SCN on Seller's account at the time of SCN Sent)
- Auto Notified/Watchlisted after 5 days in case of no reply of SCN as per the policy
- Auto Recommended for the action after 5 days of being Notified/Watchlisted as per the policy
- Auto Action after as per the policy

Notifications and Communications to the Seller

- Emails have been sent to the sellers between 08th April'21 and 23rd April'21 for the same.
- Additionally, we will send the below emails again to all the sellers for awareness regarding the Non-Delivery platform rule. (from 31st May'21 to 27th June'21)

Subject: Notification for Non-compliance of Delivery Proofs

Email Body:

Dear Seller,

Please note that it is mandatory to update supply position in GeM in an on-line manner for all contracts placed on GeM. In case if the delivery status of your contract is still pending, this is going to be treated as non-delivery. You are therefore advised to immediately update all your supply position for the Contracts in GeM portal. Dispatch and delivery details need to be updated in GeM even if the payment has been made in an off-line manner. Updating the details in GeM would save your account from being Notified / watch-listed or Suspended for Non-Delivery.

Regards,
Team GeM
